

Damage & Loss: Who and What You Need to Know

Friday, April 1, 2016

1:00pm - 4:00pm

OPTIONAL LUNCH AT 12:30, INCLUDED IN PROGRAM FEE

Claire Marmion
Haven Art Group

Damage and loss appraisals can be challenging for even the most seasoned appraisers. Having many more moving parts and problems to solve, damage and loss appraisals often also involve insurance adjusters and conservators to prepare a report that can be relied upon by all parties. This program will explore these interesting puzzles from all perspectives and include case studies. Each of the speakers will also discuss how best appraisers can work with members of their profession.

Suzanne Siano
Monder Art Conservation, NY

Speakers include:

Claire Marmion of Haven Art Group who will explain the role of the insurance adjuster; Suzanne Siano, principal of Modern Art Conservation, New York, will elucidate the conservator's role in assessing the condition and determining loss of value;

Betty Krulik, AAA, Betty Krulik Fine Art, Limited, immediate past President of the Appraisers Association, will discuss the unique methodology of damage and loss appraisals; attorney Alan Lyons of Herrick, Feinstein LLP will highlight the legal obligations of the insured to give timely notice and the process of selection of appraisers and umpires in the case of a dispute.
